Federal Pell Grants | Pell Enrollment Intensity (PEI)

Pell Grants have a 6-year life-time limit

FAFSA application & calculated SAI determine the award amounts

- Pell Enrollment Intensity (PEI) will determine payment amounts. $\frac{\# \text{ of Units}}{12} = \text{PEI}$
- PEI is a percentage (%) value based on the # of units a student is enrolled for the term

Term Award $3,600

- 12 units = $12/12 = 100\%$ | $$3,600 \times 1 = $3,600$
- 10 units = $10/12 = 83\%$ | $$3,600 \times .83 = $2,988$
- 7 units = $7/12 = 58\%$ | $$3,600 \times .58 = $2,088$

Loan Types

- Federal Direct Subsidized & Unsubsidized
 - lender is the federal government
 - no-credit check; just completion of the FAFSA
- Federal Parent PLUS Loans
 - based on credit worthiness
 - parents must apply separately via www.studentaid.gov
- CA Dream Loans (for CADAA applicants)
- Private Educational Loans
 - based on credit worthiness
 - apply with a bank lender of your choosing

SUBSIDIZED

UNSUBSIDIZED

CA Dream Loans

(loans are subsidized by the state of California; state pays the interest while you are in school & through the 6-months grace period)

For Federal & CA Dream Loans, at least half-time enrollment (6-units) is required

For all loans, payments may be applied to any educational related expense (tuition, fees, books, food, housing, or other)

Grades = Money
Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)
Let's Talk About it

What is Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)?

SAP are the reasonable standards that measure whether or not a student is maintaining satisfactory academic progress towards completing their degree.

We monitor (3) three standards:

- GPA
- Completion Percentage %
- Maximum Timeframe (or Attempted Unit Cap)

The (3) SAP Standards

GPA Minimum:
Junior/Seniors
2.0

Complete
66.67% of your classes
w/ passing grades

Example:

12 units x .6667 = 8 units
15 units x .6667 = 10 units

The Max Timeframe limit is 180 units
Stay on track to graduate on-time, before reaching this limit!

Term	Outstanding Charges & Deposits	Pending Financial Aid	Total Due
Spring 2025	3,749.23	8,009.00
Total	3,749.23	8,009.00

Pending Financial Aid = means anticipated or expected, but not yet disbursed or paid-out

8,009.00 is greater than > 3,749.23

- Therefore, the TOTAL DUE column IS BLANK
- Why? Because no balance owed by the student
- Student will receive a Financial Aid REFUND for 4,259.77
 - 8,009 - 3,749.23 = excess amount of 4,259.77
