

Shaunté Keakalani Caraballo

DEPARTMENT OF
THEATRE ARTS & DANCE

310-243-3868
scaraballo@csudh.edu

Shaunté Keakalani Caraballo is an Assistant Professor at CSU Dominguez Hills in the Department of Theatre, Speech and Dance where she is the Speech Coordinator and teaches all three disciplines. She is the director of the Speech & Debate team and is currently serving as the Chair for the Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival, in Region 8.

She has been a professional public speaker for over 20 years. She is a multiple national award-winning speech and debate competitor and coach with over 25 years of competition and a history of national success as a competitor and as a coach. She has developed and delivered presentation, leadership, DEI, as well as non-profit and sales training both nationally and internationally. She specializes in working with under-represented people groups. She lives in Long Beach with her husband Craig, daughter Sam, and their fur-baby Misty.