

CSU's Got Talent

Live webcasts featuring innovative & essential training for your professional and personal success!

Presented by Systemwide Learning & Development

March 11

10:00am - 11:00am PT

All CSU Staff and Faculty are welcome to attend.

Zoom Event
Registration

The Power of Empathy in Our Interactions with Others

Join us as Dr. Rodríguez discusses original research, demonstrating how individuals can respond empathically in conversations with diverse others to cultivate compassion in organizational settings. With an empathy-based framework as a foundation, the session demonstrates how individuals can respond humanely in conversations with members of different cultural groups, and thereby, promote ethical conduct, compassion, and proactive social change in organizations.

About Dr. José Rodríguez

Dr. Rodríguez is Professor of Communication Studies at Long Beach State. His research is published in Text & Performance Quarterly, Journal of Multilingual and Multicultural Development, Western Journal of Black Studies, Communication Research, and Communication Education. Dr. Rodríguez has also received awards for the quality of his research from the National Communication Association (NCA), the International Communication Association (ICA), and the Association of Teacher Educators (ATE). His work has been featured on ABC7, KMEX, and TEDxCSULB. In the community, Dr. Rodríguez is an active seminar trainer and consultant, with over 20 years of experience.

CSULEARN

This webcast will be recorded and available on CSU Learn, along with other past sessions of CSU'S Got Talent!